Dr. Jordan M. Ellis, DHA

Department of Health Sciences
Riverbend University
123 Academic Lane, Suite 200
Riverbend, State 45678
Email: jordan.ellis@riverbend.edu | Phone: (555) 123-4567

EDUCATION

- Doctor of Health Administration (DHA)

State University of Public Health – Capital City, State
Graduated: May 2020

- Master of Health Services Management (MHSM)

Midland State University – Midland, State
Graduated: May 2015

- Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences (BSHS)

Riverbend University – Riverbend, State
Graduated: May 2012

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Assistant Professor, Department of Health Sciences
Riverbend University – Riverbend, State
August 2020 – Present

- Teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Health Administration, Policy, and Healthcare Ethics

- Serve as academic advisor to over 40 students annually

- Developed and launched a new elective on "Digital Transformation in Healthcare"

- Integrated real-world case studies and AI tools into curriculum delivery

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Health systems management and leadership
- Health equity and access
- The impact of digital technologies and AI in healthcare delivery
- Institutional policy reform and governance in healthcare systems

PUBLICATIONS

- Peer-Reviewed Journal Articles

Ellis, J.M. (2024). Leveraging Artificial Intelligence for Operational Efficiency in U.S. Hospitals. Journal of Health Administration and Innovation, 12(1), 34–49.

Ellis, J.M., & Carter, L.D. (2023). Equity in Access: Health Policy Reforms and Disparities in Rural Care. Journal of Public Health Policy, 45(3), 210–225.

Ellis, J.M. (2022). Reimagining Graduate Health Education Through Case-Based Learning. Health Professions Education Review, 10(2), 85–98.

- Conference Proceedings

Ellis, J.M. (2023). Institutional Readiness for AI Integration in Health Administration Curriculum. Presented at the National Conference on Health Professions Education.

GRANTS AND FUNDING

Principal Investigator, "Integrating AI and Predictive Analytics in Healthcare Curriculum" Funded by the Riverbend University Innovation in Teaching Grant – $12,000 (2023–2024)

INSTITUTIONAL SERVICE

- Chair, Faculty Senate Committee on Digital Teaching & Learning (2023–Present)
- Member, University Strategic Planning Committee (2022–Present)
- Faculty Advisor, Health Leadership Student Organization (2021–Present)
- Lead Organizer, Annual Interdisciplinary Health Symposium (2022, 2023, 2024)

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE)
- Association of University Programs in Health Administration (AUPHA)
- Society for Public Health Education (SOPHE)

PRESENTATIONS

- "AI and Ethical Leadership in Health Administration" – Keynote, Riverbend AI and Ethics Forum (2024)
- "Designing Inclusive Learning Environments in Health Admin Programs" – AUPHA Annual Meeting (2023)

CERTIFICATIONS & TRAINING

- Certificate in Online Course Design – Riverbend University Center for Teaching Excellence (2021)
- Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES) – National Commission for Health Education Credentialing

REFERENCES

Available upon request.